

John: Jesus Answers Nicodemus' Tough Questions John 3:1-21

A religious leader named Nicodemus comes to see Jesus. Most religious leaders don't like Jesus, so Nicodemus sneaks to see him at night. As he talks with Jesus, Nicodemus asks some hard questions. Jesus answers them because Jesus isn't afraid of hard questions.

"For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

Through the Week

- Give everyone a scrap of paper or two. Have each person write one or two fun questions to talk about, such as favorite things, memories, or doing new things for the first time.
- Put all the paper scraps in a jar or cup.
- When you're about to drive somewhere as a family, grab a question to discuss on the way!
- You can also pick out a question to discuss over a meal.
- Try to discuss all the questions throughout the week. See how questions bring you closer together.

Talk About This...

- What's the most important question you'd like to ask God?